

Rights Resource Network SA

connecting change creators + law makers rightsnetworksa.com

rightsnetworksa@gmail.com

Volunteer Job Information: Job No 6/2021

About Us

The Rights Resource Network SA is a volunteer-run network designed to share information and research among academics, community organisations and individuals who share an interest in protecting the human rights of South Australians. It is not an incorporated organisation and it does not have a formal, hierarchical decision-making process. We rely on the support and generosity of volunteers like you, but we also want to make you benefit from the experience of volunteering with the Rights Resource Network SA. To find out more about volunteering with us please visit Volunteer | Rights Resource Network (rightsnetworksa.com)

About this volunteer opportunity Title

Completion Date
Key Contact person

Skills required

Key tasks

Key outputs

Meetings required?
Where to go for help or more info

Tips for how to describe this in your CV

Facial Recognition Technology and Rights in SA Briefing Note

Complete by 15 November 2021
Dr Sarah Moulds, sarah.moulds@unisa.edu.au or 0401132544

Legal research skills eg finding and summarising academic research,
Written communications skills eg drafting a Briefing Note

Strategic advocacy skills eg identifying key ideas from the literature that are relevant to reforms in South Australia

Identify existing and proposed South Australian laws that incorporate the use of facial recognition technology

Summarise the key human rights issues identified in the academic literature and/or UN reports about the use of facial recognition technology

Present this information in a Briefing Note
Draft a Briefing Note for publication on the Rights Resource Network

A blog post on the key rights issues arising
Yes – 15 minutes online once a week
Dr Sarah Moulds, sarah.moulds@unisa.edu.au or 0401132544

In this position I worked independently to provide high quality tailored legal information and research that contributed directly to improving the capacity of the South Australian community to engage with the parliamentary law making process.